Be a part of the real work of the Presbytery of the Pacific.

Presbytery works through committees.

Committees of the Presbytery provide opportunities to do important work and learn a great deal about how the church works.

General Mission Council

Coordinates the work of Presbytery committees; nominates members and chairs of Nominating Committee and Committee on Representation; other powers granted by Presbytery

Committee on Staff

Counsel, oversight, and review of the work and salaries of the Presbytery staff

Committee on Ministry

Care and nurture of congregations and ministers. Help securing pastoral leadership.

Committee on Preparation for Ministry

Nurture and preparation of future ministers

Administration Committee

Presbytery finances, issues of the corporation; congregational financial oversight, consultation on property matters

Congregational Life

Resource congregations for evangelism, Christian education, stewardship, leadership development and officer training

Governing Body, Polity and Records

Reviewing session records and registers; relating to work of other governing bodies

Mission Interpretation & Promotion

Interpret Presbytery and Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Missions; recognize congregational ministries; promote social justice and peacemaking; relate to specific missions within Presbytery boundaries

Self Development of People

Distribute funds and recommend distribution of national funds to self-development projects within the Presbytery

Synod Commissioner

Represent the Presbytery in making decisions about mission in our area

Synod Council

Coordinates the work of the Synod committees; makes decisions between meetings of the Synod.
